

INReSH 2022

Wicked problems in selection and recruitment in healthcare professions

Date: 27 August 1.30-6pm

Venue: Marriott hotel/Lyon

Includes tea/coffee during discussion with a wine/soft drink reception afterwards

As previous supporters of INReSH and/or interested in selection into the health professions, we are delighted to invite you to participate in a structured roundtable discussion. To register please email INReSH@medschools.ac.uk

We also invite you to submit a short abstract proposing a wicked problem for selection and recruitment to the health professions. A number of these will be chosen and used to structure the discussions.

Please download the abstract submission form HERE and email it to INReSH@medschools.ac.uk after completed.
